LOUISBURG COLLEGE
For Girls and Young Women
Established 1802

LOUISBURG COLLEGE is now educating the fourth generation of young women, having been chartered in 1802. It is located at the "Fords of the Tar," Louisburg, N. C., on the summit of the highest hill in the town, in a beautifully shaded grove of magnificent oaks. For over a century it has been a leader in the educational life of the South. Located in the most ideal college community of the great South, Louisburg College, rich in its history, its traditions, its products, with excellent equipment, a strong, carefully selected Christian faculty, a choice student body—stands ready to serve with increasing efficiency in the greatest business of life—the training of the women of the future.

ALMA MATER

Tune: Haydn's "Austria"

ALMA MATER, shelt'ring College,
Thou hast been our guiding friend,
From thy fount of flowing knowledge
We would drink until the end.
Be thy daughters' inspiration,
^{children,} glowing light, to cheer and guide,
Stand, Old College, Alma Mater,
Through the changing years abide.

Noble women, wives and mothers,
Thou hast borne a shining throng;
Teach the Truth to many others,
Speed the Light that baffles wrong:
Thron'd upon a hill where passes
Those whose feet are yet untried—
Stand, Old College, Alma Mater,
Through the changing years abide.

Greater love and veneration
Be thy portion, Mother dear,
May each coming generation
Bring rich gifts thy heart to cheer.
Till thy stalwart columns heavenward
Cease to point the Way of Life.
Stand, Old College, Alma Mater,
Through the changing years abide.

—Dedicated to Louisburg College by the Class of 1915.
